How to play

Have some fun to your event with this simple guessing game! Before you start, choose which animal is the mystery muncher and seal your answer in an envelope. Ask guests to donate to take part. Everyone should pay the same amount to enter. Each participant should write their name next to their guess. When all the choices have been taken, open the envelope to reveal the mystery muncher. The participant with the correct guess is the winner. Don't forget to organise a prize in advance!
